Where Independent Publishers Live

Independent Minds Need Independent Publishers

We believe in the power of ideas. We believe in making independent thoughts heard. We believe in presenting world-renowned voices addressing important issues and urging people to take action toward pressing political, cultural, and environmental needs. We promise you'll find stimulating books to engage your students on the following pages.

We hope you will join us in striving to share great ideas with the world.

Consortium Book Sales & Distribution is home to over one hundred leading independent publishers whose books we distribute to bookstores, libraries, schools, and universities. Our publishers' authors have won Pulitzer Prizes, National Book Awards, and Nobel Prizes. For more than twenty years, our mission has remained the same: bring thought-provoking books to the widest possible audience.

Slavic Studies 2009–2010

Looking at people through the lens of their cultures teaches us many things about them, and about ourselves. Inside this catalog are memoirs, observations, literature, histories, and art from people from around the globe. Consortium's publishers bring you great books by well-known authors whose insights offer rich lessons for students of all ages.

HISTORY

Croatia Through History

Branka Magaš

This comprehensive volume recounts Croatia's development from the early Middle Ages to the present day. Unlike most Western histories of the region, which tend to neglect the concurrent evolution of Croatia's constituent parts, it shows that Croatia developed gradually and organically. Branka Magaš pays particular attention to the historical turning points at which a state seemingly marked for extinction managed to bounce back.

Saqi Books • 978-0-86356-775-9 CUSA • $60.00 Hardcover • 2008

The History of Bosnia

From the Middle Ages to the Present Day

Marko Attila Hoare

Marko Attila Hoare examines the origins of Bosnia and its constituent peoples, tracing their evolution through periods of Ottoman, Habsburg, and Yugoslav rule; the genocidal atrocities of World War II; Communist-led revolution and dictatorship; and the Bosnian declaration of independence in 1992 and the violence that followed. A study of national identity, the author explains what being Bosnian means to Muslims, Serbs, Croats, and Jews.

Saqi Books • 978-0-86356-953-1 CUSA • $45.00 Hardcover • 2007

History of the Russian Revolution

Leon Trotsky; Translated by Max Eastman

Among the histories of the revolutions of 1917, Leon Trotsky's classic work remains the most comprehensive and dynamic. Trotsky combines analysis of factors such as economic development, international relations, and party politics with a focus on the participation and experience of ordinary workers, soldiers, and peasants. This single-volume edition comes fully updated for modern readers with a thorough new index.

Haymarket Books • 978-1-931859-45-5 CUSA • $32.00 Paperback • 2008

POLITICS

Lenin Rediscovered

What Is to Be Done? in Context

Lars T. Lih

What Is to Be Done? is conventionally regarded as evidence of the Bolsheviks' elitism. Lars T. Lih uses many previously unavailable sources—including a new translation of the original work—to situate Lenin's perspective within the mainstream of the European socialist movement of his time. This thorough and nuanced study upends traditional readings of Lenin and Russian history in the early twentieth century.

Haymarket Books • 978-1-931859-58-5 CUSA • $50.00 Paperback • 2008

Western Marxism and the Soviet Union

A Survey of Critical Theories and Debates Since 1917

Marcel van der Linden

From socialist utopia to state capitalism, the political and economic character of the Soviet Union has been subject to many widely divergent analyses. Marcel van der Linden offers an encyclopedic review of these diverse assessments. This book summarizes the theories and debates, describes the development of different approaches, and assesses what impact these debates have had on political theory and historical analysis.
